

CUBA.

Remains of Castanon at Havana—The Cubans at Key West—The Spanish Consul's Residence Guarded.

HAVANA, Feb. 1.—The steamer Lavaca, from Key West, entered the harbor this morning with her colors at half-mast, bearing the remains of GONZALO CASTANON, late editor of the Voz de Cuba. The body will be embalmed. Preparations are making for the funeral. Subscriptions are being made to provide for the children of CASTANON.

KEY WEST, Fla., Feb. 1.—The residence of the Spanish Consul here is guarded at night by a military patrol. The Cubans make no further demonstrations, but the authorities are active and vigilant....The United States flagship Severn, and the monitors Dictator and Sanguis, arrived to-day from Matanzas.
