

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, June 25.

The amount of Internal Revenue receipts today is $801,000.

Several additional clerks were dismissed from the Treasury Department, to-day.

Important intelligence has been received from the headquarters of the Cuban Revolutionists by their friends in this city. Since the battle of Puerto del Padre, there has been but two important engagements, in both of which the Spanish forces were defeated with a loss of over fifty killed and wounded. In one of them the Cubans captured a provision train.

The Cuban army is reported in good condition, while that of their opponent is suffering greatly from the cholera and congestive fevers. Disease and discontent are proving more destructive to the Spaniards than could have been accomplished by successful operations in the field. The commands find it difficult to maintain an organization.

The feud between the regulars and volunteers is growing more intense every day and all hopes of a settlement seem to be at an end. The volunteers have complete control of the commanders and indescribable outrages are being perpetrated.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S MUSICAL ATTAINMENTS.

Our popular President has many good qualities, but it appears that his taste for music is not of the best description. According to Gen. Sherman he is almost as bad in that respect as the individual who said he did not know when one tune ended and another began, but he knew a fiddle from a drum. At West Point, before the President's departure for Boston, a Tribune correspondent says:

Gen. Underwood called upon Gen. Sherman to pay his respects and bid him good-bye.

"Taking Grant off to that drum match, are you, General?" said Gen. Sherman.

"Yes, General, and I am very sorry you cannot join us."

"Well, it is a kind of disappointment, you know, because I can appreciate those things; but the President! bless your soul, he'll be bored to death. And worse than all that, he has no ear for music. Why, do you know that Grant couldn't tell the difference between Yankee Doodle and Zip Coon?"
