

The Cuban Insurrection.

HAVANA, March 10.

It appears that an expedition from the United States or Nassau has landed on the Cuban coast. The captain of a Spanish vessel which arrived here today reports that on Sunday last, while east of Punta Mulas he saw a fleet consisting of one side wheel steamer bark rigged, and three other steamers schooner rigged, steering northeast. Shortly afterwards he passed side wheel steamer, bark rigged, which was anchored two miles from Guincho Keyes.

News from the jurisdiction of Cionfuegos is favorable to the Government.

In the Eastern Department the Government troops are very active. Columns have left Santiago and Bayamo to attack the main force of the insurgents at Magari.

In the Central Department the Government is strengthening the garrisons.

A battalion 250 strong have arrived at Colonia De St. Domingo.

The vessels which are to convey the political prisoners to Fernando Po, will sail Sunday next. They will be accompanied by the Spanish man-of-war Torqua.

The Government Censor has notified the Havana journals that they will hereafter be permitted to publish only official accounts of engagements, giving as a reason that other statements mislead the public mind.
