

Cuban Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, March 25.

A mass meeting held this evening to sympathize with the Cuban revolutionists. The hall was densely packed and great enthusiasm prevailed.

May Hall presided and made an eloquent speech.

Mr. Charles Adams read resolutions expressive of sympathy with the struggling Cubans, and urging Government to grant them belligerent rights at the earliest practicable moment.

The resolutions were adopted amid great enthusiasm.

The meeting was addressed by Rev Henry Ward Beecher and others.
