

Troops for the Cuban Revolution.

HAVANA, May 8.

A report was current last evening that Col. James Kerrigan was about raising a regiment, one thousand strong, to join the Cuban Revolution, and that the drilling was taking place in the upper part of Broadway.

Nothing new has been ascertained by Marshal Barlow in regard to the expedition which departed on Tuesday last.

A letter is understood to be on the way from Washington, instructing him to intercept any war vessels leaving this port.
