

Cuban Anniversary Celebrated.

BALTIMORE, October 11 —The first anniversary of the Cuban Revolution was celebrated by a procession and oration at the Masonic Temple.

New York, October 11.—The Cooper Institute was crowded to-night by the friends of Cuba to celebrate the anniversary of the Cuban revolution. Señor Lemus, the Cuban Minister at Washington, presided, and speeches were made by members of the Junta and others. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.