

The Cuban Privateer.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 15.—The case of the sloop-of-war Cuba comes up before the United States Commissioner to-morrow, and continues to create great interest. A marine who had deserted the Cuba and went to New York, has been brought here as a witness for the Government. An attempt was made by the officers of the Cuba to arrest the man to-day, but the officers of the United States gunboat Frolic claimed that he was under the protection of the United States flag, and the movement was abandoned. The impression is general that the case will again be continued by the Government. District Attorney Pierpont, of New York, is expected to take part in the prosecution to-morrow. The officers of the Cuba are still confident of their ultimate release.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Two Cuban privateers are reported to have escaped from the harbor. The Haytian steamer Pequeto departed, bearing the United States colors, being apprehensive of capture by the privateers should she bear Salnave's colors.
