[Associated Press Dispatches.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—'62's 13½. '65's 12½, new 9½. '67's 9½. 10-40's 9½. Railways heavy and lower. Miscellaneous list weak. Sub-Treasury balance eighty-seven and a half millions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—As the time of inauguration approaches, the anxiety to learn Grant's cabinet increases. Some of the most prominent Republicans express themselves entirely ignorant, and it is not known that any of them have been consulted. There is very great anxiety in Radical circles. The bitter contest in the House over the proceedings growing out of yesterday's events in joint convention increases the uneasiness.

The House Election Committee held a meeting this morning, when Mr. Upson, who has charge of the preparation of the report on the Louisiana contested election case, submitted to the committee the points of his report, which were approved. It is against the admission of Simon Jones, on the ground that he was not elected, but that Colathann, deceased, was elected, and that neither Col. Hunt nor Mennard, the colored claimant, are entitled to a seat, and because the election was invalid on account of intimidations, &c. The report will be completed on Monday. There will be a minority report favoring the admission of Col. Hunt by Kerr and Choister.

MADRID, Feb. 11.—The greatest interest felt in the proceedings of the Constituent Cortes at the session which commenced to-day. Rinoco will certainly be chosen President. A majority of the members favor selecting Ferdinand, father of the reigning King of Portugal, as the future ruler of Spain. Should he refuse, then the Du'co of Montpensier will probably be chosen.

The movement of Carlists in Guipuzcoa, Biscay and Alava, commonly known as the Bi-quit provinces, are quite active.

The French Government is watching the frontier closely.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Stocks dull and unsettled. Money 7. Exchange 9¼ Gold 135½. '62's 14¼. N. Ca. 63½, new 61½ Va. ex-coupons 56½, new 62. Tennessee ex-coupons 66½, new 66½. Levees 68. Flour dull. Wheat dull and drooping. Corn dull and a shade lower. Pork dull and lower; new mess $32 25@32 50. Steam lard drooping; bbls 20¼. Cotton lower, 30½. Turpentine drooping at 57½. Rosin quiet and firm, $2 55@2 60. Freights quiet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The Senate, after reports of the committees, not including that of the Judiciary on Virginia, proceeded to the consideration of private bills.

HOUSE—The privileged resolution of Butler was resumed.

The Supreme Court heard the argument on a writ of prohibition against the Virginia Judge Underwood, from nullifying the action of courts whose officers are ineligible under the 14th amendment.

The reconstruction committee further considered Mississippi, but without action.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The spirit pervading the House may be imagined from the following extracts from yesterday's proceedings:

Mr. Butler—I take back nothing.

Mr. Bingham—Then I ask the House to compel you to take back your revolutionary resolution. That is something that the gentleman cannot retract, and I demand it here to day, before this House and before the people of the country, as being as unwarrantable as any act of secession. I denounce, as a representative of the people, the attempt to inaugurate revolution on the floor of the House. I will oppose the references of the resolution as seeming to commit the House in some sort to a challenge of your own law. How would it look for us to refer another resolution suggested by the speech of the gentleman, Mr. Butler, and that is that the House should be authorized to use the gentleman's language: "If the Senate would not retire from the joint convention, to kick it out." The gentleman from Massachusetts should be the captain in the kicking operation. [Laughter.] I think the gentleman cannot gurnsey his speech in that behalf, which brought down the galleries and split the ears of the groundlings, and it illustrated the animus of his resolution. I denounce it here as a resolution of revolution, I denounce it as a resolution of anarchy. The idea of the House of Representatives kicking the Senate of the United States-I about the same time that you will have kicked the law making power out of existence you will have proved yourselves a greater architect of your country's ruin, than you did the million of men who for four years waged war upon your Constitution and your laws, drenching your land with blood, and digging it all over with graves.

Mr. Butler, (aside) I always did like that speech of Mr. Bingham's (laughter). Another.

Mr. Schenck—I have no the slightest idea of proposing the censure of the Speaker. I think he was excited like the rest of us.

Mr. Colfax—He was not.

Mr. Schenck—There is only a difference of opinion about that.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 12—Afternoon.—Yarn and fabrics at Manchester heavy.

HAVANA, Feb. 11.—Telegraphic communication with Agua la Grande is restored.

It is reported that the leaders in the sugar district of Cienfuegos, Villa Clara and Trinidad are Adolfo Cavada and his brothers, Frederic Cavada and Adolfo Cavada, formerly American vice-Consul at Cienfuegos, and removed at the request of Lersundi. He was Colonel of a Philadelphia regiment of Zuaves during the American war. Frederick was, until last week, American consul at Trinidad de Cuba, and has just resigned.
