

HAVANA, June 23—Via Key West.—Gen. Baceta has arrived in Havana. He was hooted at Santiago, and on his arrival at Cienfuegos was only saved from the violence of the volunteers by the intercession of Gov. Herz. He is now concealed in this city and will be compelled to escape by stealth.

The mobilized volunteers garrisoning Matanzas recently executed Robinson, aged 19, son of a British resident, for carrying rebel correspondence. Heavy skirmishes have taken place in Cinco Villas District. It is reported that 150 Cubans and 100 Spaniards are killed.

It is known that large sums of money are forwarded to the United States for the purchase of war material and to aid the Cuban Juntas in fitting out expeditions.

HAVANA, June 25.—Gen Bacete, falsely reported to have been killed by his troops, has gone to New Orleans.

The cholera has broken out in Guanatanamo and vicinity. Several cases have occurred in Santiago. The disease is raging with great severity in the interior.

About the last of May the schooner Grape-shet landed forty men and a portion of her cargo on the Cuban coast. While the boats were landing the men, some passengers on board attempted to run the vessel ashore and a fight ensued with the crew and officers, in which the Captain of the Grapeshot received a bullet in the leg. The Grapeshot finally got rid of the whole party, and, without landing all her stores, proceeded to Turks' Island, where she received a clearance and arrived on the 1th inst. at Falmouth, Jamaica. There were one hundred and fifty-five packages of arms and ammunition remaining on board; they were seized by the customhouse officers and the Captain abandoned the vessel. The seizure was subsequently declared illegal, and the Captain sued the collector of the port and others for damages.

Several filibuster who landed at Battegnori were executed at Santiago.

HAVANA, June 25.—The volunteer forces have of their own free will given up the duty of garrisoning Moro Castle and the fortress of Cabanas, and will be relieved to-morrow by naval forces. They have taken this action to convince the home government that they had no idea of disobeying its orders or opposing the new Captain General.
