

The shaded part indicates the districts in insurrection. The white line shows Valmaseda's line of march, with crosses to denote the battlegrounds. The white circular spots show the places that have never been taken by the insurgents. The white space along the coast shows the coast line protected by the Spanish fleet.

THE CUBAN REVOLUTION—MAP OF CUBA, SHOWING THE IMPORTANT CITIES, TOWNS, AND STRATEGIC POINTS, THE RAILROADS, ETC., ETC.—SEE PAGE 323.