

Cuba.

Havana, Feb. 11.

The telegraphic communication between Havana and Souge, La Grand and Villa Clara, which had been destroyed by the revolutionists, has been restored. It is reported that the leader of the revolution in the sugar district of Cicufugas, Villa Clara and Trinidad are banished. Covado and his brother Frederick Covado, the former of which was recently American Vice Consul at Cicufugas, and was removed at the urgent request of Captain-General Perusz, and he was colonel of a regiment of zouaves during the civil war in America. The latter was, until last week, American Consul at Trinidad, and has just resigned.

---