Prominent Citizens of Havana Gone to Confer with the Revolutionists,

HAVANA, Monday, Jan. 11.

A Commission of influential citizens of Havana, native Cubans and prominent members of the Liberal Party, left this city yesterday on the steamer Montezuma for Nuevitas, on their way to Bayamo, to meet the revolutionary leaders and attempt to bring about a compromise for the restoration of peace. Among the members of the Commission are Señores JOSE ARMAS, HORTENCIO, TAMAGO and RODRIGUEZ, well-known friends of reform and liberal institutions.
