Review of Troops at Havana—Another Skirmish Reported—Arrival of Gen. Dulce.

HAVANA, Sunday, Jan. 3.

Captain-General LERSUNDI held a grand review to-day of all the troops in and around the city. The display was very fine, and was witnessed by large crowds of citizens.

No news has lately been received from Count VALMASEDA, who at last accounts was on the line between Nuevitas and Bayamo.

The Gaceta publishes an account of a skirmish which took place between the regular troops and the insurgents on the 26th ult., in the vicinity of Manzanillo, and claims a victory for the Government. No statement of the losses on either side is given.

HAVANA, Monday, Jan. 4.

The newly-appointed Captain-General of Cuba, Gen. DULCE, arrived here this morning from Cadiz. He disembarked at noon, and was conducted to the palace, where he was installed and took possession of the Government. None of the demonstrations which it was expected would be made by both Spaniards and Cubans on his arrival took place. The ceremonies of his reception were of a formal character, and passed off quietly.

The new Viceroy brings with him a number of general officers and civil employes. He is also accompanied by Bishop MARTINEZ, of the Diocese of Havana, who was some time ago banished to Spain by Captain-General LERSUNDI.
