

CUBA.

Two Spanish men-of-war are reported to have sailed from Havana for Nassau, N. P., for the purpose of looking after the Lillian.

Serious frauds are stated to have been discovered in the Government bonded warehouses at Havana, and the authorities are engaged in an investigation. The furniture in the palace of Señor ALDAMAS, in that city, was sold at auction yesterday.

General CAVADA, the insurgent leader, is said to have issued an order to the forces under him to burn the cane fields, in order to prevent the owners of plantations from obtaining the sugar, as the time had arrived to grind the cane.
