
CUBA.

Skirmishes with the Insurgents—Volunteering in Havana—Remington Rifles to be Purchased.

HAVANA, Sept. 4.—Major LA CASA has had several skirmishes with the insurgents near Arroya Blanco, in the jurisdiction of the Cuatro Villas, and killed thirty of them. Committees have been appointed to promote enlistments for the volunteer reserve corps in this city. Money was subscribed at the Casino Espanol last night to buy Remington rifles for the Catalan volunteers. The English war-steamer Philomel, from Nassau, has arrived here.
