Estimates of Expenses—Civil Law Re-established in Several Jurisdictions—Cable Despatches to Be Sent in the Future Whether Favorable to the Spaniards or Not.

HAVANA, July 9, 1893.

The government estimates the expenditures for July at $2,000,000, distributed as follows:—War, $500,000; Navy, $200,000; Interior, $750,000; Education, $11,000; Miscellaneous, $550,000. The government has embargoed up to date 540 estates, of which twenty have produced $75,000 for the State. The rest are in a state of liquidation.

Count Valmaseda writes to the Captain General that the civil authority has been re-established in the jurisdictions of Manzanillo, Bayamo and Jiguaní, and travelling on the highways was safe.

Captain General De Rodas has granted to the correspondent of the Associated Press a freer use of the telegraph. At an interview he said that in reporting military movements the correspondent would always be permitted to state facts, though at times they might be unfavorable to the government; that true knowledge abroad of what actually passed in Cuba would injure no one save the rebels.
