

THIS SIDE THE OCEAN.

Mr. Stedman, U. S. Consul at Santiago de Cuba, died on the 6th. There is a scarcity of provisions at Puerto Principe. The Cuban revolution has made very little noise during the week, the main news being that several thousand Remington rifles have been sent from Havana to arm volunteers about to take the field in the districts.—