
WEST INDIES.

The Cuban Captain-General—Embarkation of De Rodas for Spain—Insurrection at Maracaibo—Protection of British Subjects.

HAVANA, Dec. 7.—Count VALMASEDA arrived here yesterday. Gen. DE RODAS went on board the ship to receive him. The bark Elba, from New-York, has arrived.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Dec. 7.—The British Consul at Maracaibo arrived here this morning, and asks the British Commodore to send a war vessel back with him immediately to protect the English and other foreign interests at Maracaibo, where the insurrection is at its height.
