
The Indictment of Cuban Traders—Lively Disclosures Anticipated.

Deputy Marshal ROBINSON was detailed, yesterday, to find the mysterious person who was jointly indicted with Gen. JORDAN on a charge of fitting out a military expedition and enlisting men to serve as soldiers in Cuba. The officials at the District-Attorney's office denied that the accused was Señor RUYAZ. It was intimated that he was Col. RYAN. It is understood that some interesting developments will be made in a few days in regard to the manner in which Gen. JORDAN and his associates behaved in obtaining money and men for the Cuban cause.
