The Villanueva Theater Rioters Condemned to Death—Operations Against the Insurgents—The Freemasons.

HAVANA, March 9.—A military Court-martial has been in session in this city for the trial of persons accused of causing the riot in the Villanueva Theater last year. Of the number tried Señors BRAMOSEO, VALDES, PONS, CISNEROS, RIVERO and VALIENTE have been found guilty of the charge and sentenced to death. Señors SANTACILIA, PARRA and LATORRE, also on trial on the same charge, were acquitted. All of the above named are in the City of New-York. The Prensa states that the number of insurgents at Guines exceeds one hundred. The Diario says that fifty-six of the number have been killed by the troops, and, according to telegraphic dispatches from that quarter, the rest are completely surrounded. The Havana journals contain accounts of the dispersion and killing of two hundred insurgents belonging to the band of MAXIMO GOMEZ, near the town of Bayamo. A party of insurgents attacked the Armonia plantation near
