

one, and gave free expression to their approbation or disapprobation of the sentiments of the speakers. Gentlemen on the stage and in the audience frequently interrupted the speakers with questions or statements of their own ideas on the subject matter. No surprise or objection was shown or made, and these little side discussions would sometimes last several minutes.

Cuban Demonstration at Irving Hall.

In response to a call made by Señors MANUEL QUESADA and THOMAS JORDAN, a large audience assembled at Irving Hall last evening, to hear Gen. JORDAN and others make addresses in regard to the Cuban cause. The hall was a little more than half filled, and would probably have been crowded but for the shortness of the notice that the meeting would be held. Nearly one-half of the audience were ladies.

The chair was occupied by Señor VALDES MENDOZA, and Señor ENRIQUE PINCIRO was appointed Secretary. Gen. JORDAN was not present, owing to indisposition.

Spirited addresses were made in the Spanish language by T. ARMES Y CESPEDES, ENRIQUE AGRAMONTE, VINCENT MESTRE and others. The audience was a most attentive
