

AN ALMOST TRUE SENSATION.—One of the sensational journals stated yesterday that the schooner Maria sailed from this port for Cuba with arms and munitions for the insurgents, and that Marshal Harlow inspected the vessel, knew her character and destination and consented to her sailing. Marshal Harlow now states that he did know of her destination and character, and that she had no arms or munitions on board and did not sail for Cuba. Otherwise the report might have been almost true.
