

THE SPANISH GUNBOATS.

Thirteen of the Spanish Gunboats in Charleston Harbor.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 17, 1870.

A fleet of thirteen Spanish gunboats, under convoy of the frigate Isabel la Catholica, from New York via Hampton Roads, put into this harbor to-day for coal and supplies. They expect to remain here about ten days, when they will leave for Cuba.
