

CUBA.

General Puello Heard From.

HAVANA, Jan. 27, 1870.

A telegram has been received from Nuevitas, and is published in the journals of this city, announcing that General Puello has arrived at Baga, a town a few miles from that city.

The Diario says that General Puello carried with him but eight days' provisions.

The Voz de Cuba demands that a train be immediately sent to Nuevitas for the purpose of taking the troops of Puello to Puerto Principe.
