Activity of the Revolutionists—General Puello Not Yet Heard From—An Insurgent Chief Killed.

HAVANA, Jan. 6, 1870.

A body of insurgents are reported to be moving towards the Canto Abajo region, in the Eastern Department. Simultaneously with this movement several well armed bodies, of 200 to 400 men each, were sent to the centre of the Cinco Villas district. The reported object of these expeditions is to destroy the canefields.

There has as yet been no authentic confirmation of the surrender of the 1,500 insurgents. The Fox de Cuba calls for details, but the Prensa is silent.

There is much sickness at Nuevitas.

It is reported that the insurgents recently encamped at Gibara escaped in boats to Ragged Island and Nassau.

Nothing has been heard of General Puello since the 25th of December. He left Nuevitas to go towards Casorro.

The woods immediately in the vicinity of Puerto Principe have been cut down, thus depriving the insurgents of a place for attack.

Manuel Almaguez, one of the insurgent chiefs, has been killed.

The Impartial has arrived at Trinidad from Saco, Me. The bark Stampede has arrived at Havana from New York.

Exchange is declining.
