The Fight at Guaimaro.

The following despâch in relation to the battle at Guaimaro has been received by the Spanish Consul in this city:—

HAVANA, Jan. 30, 1870.

General Puello attacked and captured, with only 1,200 troops, the contraband camp of the insurgents at Guaimaro. He remained there seventeen days, destroying the fortifications which they had built up in the encampment. The insurgents fled after the first attack, leaving a great number of dead on the field.
