Valmaseda at Manzanillo En Route for Bayamo—The Casino Español on the Recent Assassination of an American.

HAYANA, Feb. 10, 1870.

Late advices from the Eastern Department have been received. Count Valmaseda arrived at Manzanillo on the 5th inst., and would leave for Bayamo, but at what time it was uncertain.

The Casino Español, representing the wealthy and prominent Spaniards of Havana, has issued a document protesting against the vile, unwarrantable and criminal assassination of Isaac Greenwaldt. A special meeting of that body was held, at which a subscription was started for the benefit of the widow and orphans of Greenwaldt.
