A Military Court Martial in Session—The Business Before It—Rebel News—Free Masons Still in Prison—The Markets.

HAVANA, March 9, 1870.

A military court martial has been in session in this city for the trial of persons accused of causing the riot in the Villanueva theatre last year. Of the number tried Señors Bramoseo, Valdez, Pons, Cisneros, Rivero and Vallente have been found guilty of the charge and sentenced to death. Señors Santaclia, Parra and Latorre, also on trial on the same charge, were acquitted. All of the above named are in the city of New York.

The Prensa states that the number of insurgents at Guines exceeds one hundred. The Diario says that fifty-six of the number have been killed by the troops; and, according to telegraphic despatches from that quarter, the rest are completely surrounded.

The Havana journals contain accounts of the dispersion and killing of 200 insurgents belonging to the band of Maximo Gomez, near the town of Bayamo.

A party of insurgents attacked the Armonia plantation, near Santiago de Cuba, and killed six of the operatives.

The Free Masons lately arrested for holding a meeting are still in jail.

The sugar market is active. Sales were made to-day on the basis of 8 a 8½ reals per arroba for No. 12 Dutch standard.

The exchange market is irregular.
