

THE CUBAN LEAGUE.

A Grand Mass Meeting to be Held April 4.

A meeting of the Cuban League of the United States was held last evening at Delmonico's and was attended by a large number of distinguished gentlemen. A delegation was also present from the Patriot League of Cuba, and was formally presented to the members of the organization by the President, General McMahon.

Colonel Ethan Allen, on behalf of a committee on addresses, presented an eloquent address to the American people in advocacy of according belligerent rights to the Cuban republic, which was adopted by the League and ordered to be published and circulated throughout the United States. The address compares the Cuban struggle to the American revolution, calls for a change in the neutrality laws, and appoints the 4th of April for a grand Cuban mass meeting, to be held at Cooper Institute. The following gentlemen were constituted a committee to make arrangements for the meeting:—Mr. Douglas Taylor, General J. M. Davies, General Gordon Granger, General Alexander Shaler, General A. Duryea, General C. K. Graham, General C. W. Darling, Colonel G. M. Hawes, Colonel Ethan Allen, Colonel J. M. Macias, Major James Haggerty, Captain E. A. Raymond, Mr. John Oakey, Mr. Bernard Casserly, Mr. W. M. Hoes and Mr. T. E. Stewart.

General C. W. Darling was elected treasurer of the League, and notice was given that all contributions to the Cuban League should be sent to him at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. After the transaction of business relating to the details of the mass meeting, which, it is proposed, shall be accompanied on the same night by similar demonstrations in the other large cities of the Union, the meeting adjourned until next Saturday evening at the same place.
