Return of Puello to Puerto Principe—General Goyeneche Fortifying at Camagunya—Loss of the Bark Amelia Shering.

HAVANA, March 21, 1870.

Intelligence from Nuevitas has been received. General Puello had returned to Puerto Principe and would soon march towards the city of Ciego de Avila.

General Goyeneche was still at Camagua, where he was erecting fortifications. News has been received here of the total loss of the bark Amelia Shering on Lobos Keys. The vessel was bound from Antwerp to New Orleans with a cargo of iron. Her crew were saved.
