

The Hoffman House was again thronged yesterday by Cubans and prominent gentlemen of the city calling to pay their respects to General Quesada. No public demonstration was made, and the General was so occupied in receiving his numerous visitors that he had no opportunity for private recreation. His official report of affairs in Cuba will be completed to-day, and to-morrow night he will attend the meeting of the Cuban League at Delmonico's.