Spanish Reports—Great Accomplishments—
The Revolution Again Ended—Céspedes
Going to Leave—Jordan Nowhere—A Remarkable Despatch.

HAVANA, April 9, 1870.

A telegram from Captain General de Rodas, dated Puerto Principe, April 8, is published in the Gaceta to-day. He states that two columns of Spanish troops had returned without meeting the enemy. The forces were then provisioned for two months and sent to occupy Gaunac and Najaza.

Two men and one woman, spies, were caught. The men were executed and the woman was pardoned.

A great amount of important correspondence was captured and much property of the rebels destroyed.

The insurgents' advanced guard surrendered voluntarily. They report that Enrique, Agramonte, Francisco, Castillo, Gaspar, Betancourt, Diego, Agüero and an American named Magnet were the chief leaders of the insurgents, and some of them had embarked and fled from the country, after having fought among themselves.

Some of the insurgents had issued an order punishing with death whoever reads De Rodas' amnesty proclamation.

Céspedes intends to leave the country. He will be actively pursued.

Anarchy, panics and desertions prevail everywhere among the rebels. Some have raised the standard of revolt against Agramonte, owing to his tyrannical behavior. Yesterday the leaders of this revolt assassinated fourteen of their own men for the purpose of robbery.

This favorable news, which is justly regarded as official, has caused great rejoicing here.
