CUBA LIBRE.

The Impressive Proceedings Against President Cepeda.

The Miami Confused in the Muragia.

The Special White House Delegation—
A Secret Letter to Beverley and Wessen—
A Limited Survey of America—
Zion, Yuba

The incident described above in which Mr. Cepeda was ambushed and seriously injured after the departure of the marines, event to-day in the White House, where President Roosevelt is a guest of the nation, is causing a great deal of confusion and excitement in Miami. The President, who is expected to arrive at any moment, is to be greeted by a large crowd of admirers who have gathered to welcome him.

The Chamber of Commerce of the city of Miami, in a special message to the President, expressed its confidence in his policy of progress and prosperity for the people of the United States. The chamber also congratulated him on his energetic efforts to promote the interests of the nation, and urged him to continue his good work.

In order to make sure that the people had received the message, the chamber traveled to Washington, where they were welcomed by the President. They were also presented with a large bunch of flowers, which they had brought with them, and were invited to inspect the White House.

The President, in his speech, spoke of the importance of unity and progress in the work of the nation, and emphasized the need for continued effort to promote the well-being of the people. He urged the people to continue their support of his policies, and to work together for the betterment of the country.

The chamber of commerce was also presented with a large bunch of flowers, which they had brought with them, and were invited to inspect the White House.

The President, in his speech, spoke of the importance of unity and progress in the work of the nation, and emphasized the need for continued effort to promote the well-being of the people. He urged the people to continue their support of his policies, and to work together for the betterment of the country.