

CUBA.

---

Bids for Spanish Favor.

HAVANA, May 10, 1870.

Private individuals throughout the island of Cuba are sending presents of money and other articles to the soldiers who captured the late rebel general, Goicouria.

---

Departure of the Lloyd, Asplawall—Smallpox in the City.

HAVANA, May 10, 1870.

The steamer Lloyd Aspinwall, which was recently released by the Spanish authorities, sailed to-day for Key West.

Smallpox of a very malignant form is prevailing in the city of Havana and in many of the interior towns of the island.

---