Stirring Reports—Important if True—Sagol and his Band Captured and Shot—Valmaseda Surrounded by the Cubans at Bayamo.

St. DOMINGO CITY, May 16, 1870.

Advices received here from Cuba state that Sagol, the Cuban renegade and agent of the Count Valmaseda, was taken prisoner, with forty men of his band, at Cantillo, by the insurgents. Sagol and his band were all shot. The news is also received that Valmaseda has been attacked by the Cubans at Bayamo. His forces are surrounded, and hopes are entertained that he will be made a prisoner.
