

CUBA.

American Consul Recognized—Emancipation of Slaves on the Island—Arrest of the Editor of the New York Cronista.

HAVANA, Sept. 29, 1870.

Alfred G. Clark has been recognized as the American Consular Agent at Remedios.

Regent Serrano has ordered the execution of the Spanish Emancipation law in Cuba and Porto Rico. All children of slave mothers born henceforth are free; all those born since 1868 are free upon certain conditions; all slaves over sixty years of age at this date are free, and all others as soon as they arrive at sixty years of age; all slaves belonging to the State are declared free, and all who have rendered public services during the insurrection. As soon as Cuban deputies are admitted to the Spanish Cortes the government will present a project of law for the complete emancipation of the slaves.

Ferrer De Conto, the editor of the Cronista, published in New York, has been arrested.

The bark John Griffin, from New York, arrived to-day.

Captain General De Rodas has ordered published the law relating to the freedom of slaves.

Exchange on London, 19½ a 20 per cent premium; on the United States, 60 days sight, in gold, 7½ per cent premium; short sight, 10 per cent premium.