

draw. The Voz de Cuba says fourteen of the Spaniards were killed, seven more severely wounded, and the remaining four were slightly wounded. The number of the insurgents killed is not known, but is thought to be considerable. LOUIS LAVIELLE, a leading insurgent, was executed on the 19th ult.

CUBA.

Death of Another Italian Opera Singer by Fever—Fishing for the Cable—Attack of Insurgents on Colon Tower—Heroic and Successful Defense—Another Leader Executed.

HAVANA, March 1.—ANNETA MORELLA, a member of the Italian opera troupe here, has died of fever....The British war-ship Vestal arrived at Santiago de Cuba today, and reports having left the Dacia off Morant Bay, seeking to recover the lost Porto Rico cable.... A large body of insurgents attacked Colon Tower, a few leagues from Puerto Principe, on the morning of the 20th ult. The garrison, which consisted of twenty-five men, made a heroic defense, and after a fight which lasted several hours, forced the besiegers, who must have numbered some hundreds, to with-