WHOLESALE EXECUTIONS FOR TREASON.

---

Important Engagements With the Insurgents—
Two Generals Killed.

HAVANA, May 20, 1871.

Juan Marquez Garcia, who had been convicted of treason, was executed at six o'clock this morning at Fort Cabanas.

The Villa de Cobre shopkeepers who have been convicted of supplying the insurgents have been executed at Santiago de Cuba.

The insurgent prefect Carlos Adan, Captain Carlos Varona and the insurgent Enrique Flotas have been executed at Puerto Principe.

General Zea reports having destroyed an insurgent camp on the 10th, and killed five persons; that his troops killed on the 12th Eloy Beauvillera, an insurgent general of artillery, Captain Antonio Bachiller Moris, Adjutant Pedro Leceri, Lieutenant Pincino and five others, and on the 18th ex-General in Chief of the Central Department, Manuel Bonza Agramonte.

General Zea also reports that he attacked Villa mil's forces on the 14th and killed ten of them. The General returned on the 16th to Puerto Principe.
