

CUBA.

Herald Special Reports from Havana.

Insurgent Defeat in the Cobre District—Surrender of a Prominent Rebel Family—Successes of Spanish Guerrillas.

TELEGRAMS TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

The NEW YORK HERALD'S special correspondent at Havana forwards the following report of the military operations in the rebellious districts of Cuba:—

HAVANA, May 2, 1871.

A despatch from Santiago, dated yesterday, announces that Colonel Canizal has had an encounter with the insurgents in the district of Cobre. Eight rebels were killed and fourteen taken prisoners. The Spanish loss is not stated.

The family of the insurgent chief Camilo Sanchez surrendered at Santi Espiritu yesterday (May 1).

The Spanish guerrillas under Orden have surprised an encampment of fifty insurgents near Pazos, dispersing them with small loss. The Spaniards destroyed the encampment and captured a lot of clothing and other effects.

Departure of the British Flying Squadron—
Havana Exchange Market.

HAVANA, May 2, 1871.

The British flying squadron sailed to-day for Bermuda.

Exchange on London, 18½ a 18¾; on the United States, currency, sixty days, 5 a 5½ discount; do. gold, sixty days, 6 a 6½ premium.
