

RATS DESERTING A SINKING SHIP.—A Cuban brigadier general and his aide-de-camp were picked up adrift by a schooner arriving at Nassau. They escaped from Cuba in a canoe made out of a cotton wood tree. Are they on a mission to urge recognition, or did they see the garrote in the distance?