

CUBANS ADRIFT.

[From the Nassau Guardian, May 20.]

Brigadier General Hermabé Varona and an aide-de-camp arrived here yesterday in the schooner Zebra, having been picked up on the Bank by that vessel. They left the coast of Cuba in a canoe cut from the trunk of a silk cotton tree, similar to the one now lying on the wharf at the end of Frederick street.