

CUBA.

Surrender of Prominent Leaders of the Insurrection.

EXECUTION OF CAPTURED EMISSARIES.

Anxiety About the Result of the Crisis in Spain.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

HAVANA, July 25, 1871.

Alvarez and Hernandez, the Cuban emissaries from Cespedes, who were recently captured, were executed at Matanzas yesterday.

Captain Segrira and Felip Ros, accused of complicity with the conspracy formed in Santiago de Cuba, have been liberated.

Severe measures have been taken by the authorities of Santiago de Cuba against the vagrants. Several parents have been fined for allowing their sons to lead an idle life.

Carlos Loret Mola, Minister of the Treasury of the Cuban government; Quartermaster Aquilero, Ernesto Loacez, José Guerra, Manuel Quesada and several members of the Betancourt family, have surrendered to the Spanish at Puerto Principe.

The insurgent Colonel Hall, who surrendered at Manzanillo, is a Cuban, and not an American, as has been reported.

Felipe Augusto Bages, a companion of the late Cavado, was captured recently at Oajo Cruz, brought to Puerto Principe and executed.

Colonel Botsadilla, of the insurgent army, has been killed.

There is much anxiety manifested by the people and government employés to know the result of the Ministerial crisis in Spain.

The bark Ocean Home has arrived from New York.
