The Captain and crew of the Virginia were seized by the Spaniards as the ship entered the harbor of Havana.

FOUR-NINE PERSONS KILLED TO BE EXECUTED

Bloody Scene at Santiago de Cuba.

DEADLY DUNES DURING TWO DAYS

Franchi Albro's Bid for Life.

Special History of the Torpedo's Perils and Ruins of the Fleet.

Passage of the Spanish Fleet.

Passenger from New York Arrested.

THURSDAY TO THE NEW YORKER.

Havana, Nov. 12, 1873.

On the 5th last, the Captain and officers of the steamer Virginia were arrested in the harbor of Havana, and on the 9th the crew of the Virginia was seized. The following is the story of the vessel on the 9th.

Stern Franchi Albro's Bid for Life.

Havana, Nov. 12, 1873.

The dispatches from Havana, also mentioning the capture of Captain Franchi and the crew of the Virginia, state that the Spanish authorities had given the crew of the Virginia a few days to leave the ship, and that the crew was to leave the ship at the time of the arrest.

The Spanish Court Martial Met in Santiago de Cuba.

The court martial met for the trial of those captured on the Virginia. The court consisted of officers from the Spanish fleet, and was presided over by the Spanish Minister of War.

The Fire of the Cuba of 1873.

The Fire of the Cuba of 1873, a day's adventure, which is in some respects, more than any that make such an impression, but it seems to have been more or less an isolated event, and particularly noted when the fire was discovered, because it was much more deadly war on the Cuba.