

CUBAN REPUBLIC OFFICERS.

New York, May 24.—Cuban revolutionary leaders in this city are actively preparing for the departure of the proclaimed president of the republic of Cuba, Señor Tomas Estrada Palma, and others chosen to fill the offices of the proclaimed republic will accompany him to Cuba. Their departure will be secret and their arrival on the island will be coincident with the landing of a large expedition, starting either from a point near Galveston or from Key West.