READY TO START A CUBAN REvolt.

Disagreement by the Recent Elections in New York Expels War Soon.

AMPLY SUPPLIED WITH MONEY.

It is believed an expedition, if ordered on in this country, will be well supplied with arms, money, stores, etc.

CANN MARSHALL, 15,000 MEN.

Revolutionary Leaders Claim with Such an Army the Field Victory in Cuba.

In New York is being held what may develop into a revolution in Cuba within the next few days. The project is one of long standing. The present editor of the New York World has long been a friend of the revolutionary cause in Cuba, and the project is to arm and organize the residents of Cuba in a revolution against the Spanish government. The plan is to arm and organize the residents of Cuba in a revolution against the Spanish government. The plan is to arm and organize the residents of Cuba in a revolution against the Spanish government.

Instead of starting an expedition from Key West, Florida, as is probable, it is now understood it will be expedited here, if not actively delayed from the United States Navy. The intention is to organize a force at Nassau and transport it to Cuba, where it will be prepared. The expedition is expected to be an army of 15,000 men, and will be supplied with arms and money. The force is expected to be a strong one, and will be well armed and equipped. The expedition is expected to be a strong one, and will be well armed and equipped.

The expedition is expected to be a strong one, and will be well armed and equipped.