INTERESTING CAREER OF THE NEW REPRESENTATIVE—ONCE PRESIDENT OF THE "REPUBLIC OF HONDURAS."

GENERAL OF HONDURAS.

Señor Thomas Estrada Palma, the newly elected Delegate of the Cuban Revolutionary Party, is in the Havana, to attend the Convention of Pensioners, which is to be held in that city next week. He was born in Havana, on the 15th of March, 1858, and is a native of that city. He is the son of M. Estrada Palma, a prominent lawyer, and the grandson of Don Manuel Estrada, who was a noted lawyer in the same city. He was educated in the best schools of the city, and then entered the University of Havana, where he studied law. He was called to the Bar in 1882, and has since been a practicing lawyer in the city of Havana. He is also a member of the Cuban Senate, and has been a member of the Cuban Congress for many years. He is a member of the Cuban Club, and is a prominent member of the Cuban Republican Party. He is a strong advocate of the cause of liberty and independence, and is a fearless and unflinching champion of the Cuban people. He is a man of great energy and determination, and is a man of great ability and distinction. He is a man of great ability and distinction. He is a man of great ability and distinction.

THOMAS ESTRADA PALMA.

"the faithful," who had been told of his coming, were on hand to welcome him. The greeting between Señor Palma and the men who are basting the country with their benevolence was a hearty one. He addressed them as the "Father of His Country."

Señor Palma is a man of letters and an eloquent orator. His ability as a writer is proverbial, and his speeches are listened to with the greatest interest. He has been a keen and active politician, and has been a prominent figure in Cuban politics for many years. He is a man of great energy and determination, and is a fearless and unflinching champion of the cause of liberty and independence. He is a man of great ability and distinction. He is a man of great ability and distinction. He is a man of great ability and distinction.
