DEATH OF LINCOLN.

The President and Mrs. Lincoln on the way to the War Department.

The President fell sick and died in the White House. Mrs. Lincoln was in the room with him when he died.

The aged, infirm President, standing at the White House, was struck down by a fit of apoplexy. He was taken to his bed, where he died.

Mrs. Lincoln is in great anguish and grief.

deed ternal