

Palma's Election Assured.

Newburg, N. Y., July 11.—Senor Tomas Betrada Palma, whose election as civil representative in place of Jose Marti, who was killed in Cuba, is practically assured, conducts a large educational institution for boys in Central Valley, Orange county, N. Y. Senor Palma was found seated upon the veranda of his residence with his wife and three of his five children. When asked for information about his election, and of Cuban affairs generally, from his view, Senor Palma said: "I have not yet received the official notification of my election, as civil representative of Cuba. All I know about it is what I read."

Mr. Guerra, the treasurer of the Cuban revolutionary party, is spending the summer with his family in Central Valley. He said that Palma's election was assured.
