A NEW JERSEY MAN.
PROCLAIMED PRESIDENT OF THE CUBAN REPUBLIC.

Browns Peter EstrellaPalma named provisional President of the CUBAN REPUBLIC.

Browns Peter EstrellaPalma, a native of New Jersey, was named provisional President of the CUBAN REPUBLIC this week in Memphis, Tenn., on the recommendation of Mr. J. F. Smith, the Andrew Jackson of the Democratic party in that city.

Browns Peter EstrellaPalma is a native of New Jersey, and while he has lived most of his life in Cuba, he is a Cuban by birth and a loyal friend of the Cuban people.

He is a member of the Cuban revolutionary party, and has been active in the work of securing independence
for Cuba, both in Cuba and in the United States.

He is a man of great ability and energy, and is well calculated to fill the important position of President of the CUBAN REPUBLIC.

CUBAN REVOLUTION.

The CUBAN REVOLUTION.

The CUBAN REVOLUTION is in full swing, and the Cubans are determined to drive Spain out of their island.

The Cubans have fought bravely and successfully, and have driven the Spaniards
back to their forts and strongholds.

The Cubans are determined to fight to the bitter end, and will not rest
until they have secured their liberty.

The CUBAN REVOLUTION is a resolute and determined struggle, and the Cubans are determined to win their independence at all costs.
