BARBAROUS WARFARE.

CAMPOS ORDERS ALL INSURGENTS CAPTURED, SHOT.

Gomez Issues an Order to Cuban Farmers to Cease Sending Supplies to Spaniards—A Reported Rebel Victory.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 11.—A cablegram to the Times-Union from Key West, Fla., says:

Late advices to this city from Havana state that a battle was fought near Mansanillo on the 3d between forces of the Spaniards, commanded by Maj. Sanchez, and 200 insurgents, commanded by Rabi, in which the Spanish troops were completely routed. Nineteen insurgents captured fifty Spaniards.

The son of Martires Campos is reported to have been a private hospital in Havana, with yellow fever.

In the battle fought between Alomar Guerra and Boreas, the Cuban leaders, the Spaniards were not only driven off, but also six soldiers escaping, owing to the fact that a Spanish schooner had been armed and sent back. One of the officers was badly wounded.

The report is confirmed that Matias Campos, who is supposed to be one of the rebels, shall be immediately shot. The order has caused much comment among the Spanish officers. The report is that the Spaniards are said to have taken prisoners, simply take away their arms and ammunition and send them back to the Spanish lines. The following manifesto has been issued by Maximo Gomez:

RECAPTURE of the Cuban Army.

Naguanagua, Puerto Principe, July 4. To the Owners of Cuban Plantations in this District:

In view of the general interest of the war for the independence of Cuba, which we are now fighting against, to be detrimental to our own interest, and the following order is issued to the whole people in this district:

From this date all are prohibited from sending products to towns occupied by the enemy. Owners of sugar which are now prepared to go to market, are ordered to suspend the sale of it to the enemy. The plantations of those ignoring this order will be destroyed. Those who sell to the enemy are considered as traitors, and if captured will be treated as such.

Maximo Gomez,
General-in-Chief.

Attest: Salvador Fierros.

Among the passengers last night on the steamship Mascotea was Ricardo Trujillo y Adams, who took an active part in the war against the Spaniards, being chief of staff of Maximo Gomez. He reports that many bands go to Cuba. From Colon, in the presence of the Spaniards, he also says that he is the bearer of important messages.

The steam tug George W. Chilas arrived in this port this morning from Portobelo, where she was sent by the quarantine authorities. Charles Harris, the former Confederate officer, is said to have been captured during her cruise of Jamaica, arrived in this city yesterday.

A call has been issued for a mass meeting at the San Carlos Hall for the purpose of raising $50,000 to carry on the winter campaign.

Edward F. Davis was elected a delegate to the meeting held in this city last night.
